Case No. AP-80-26

Upon consideration of applicant's motion, filed October 30, 1980, to take the oral depositions of certain witnesses in New York, N. Y., alleging that said witnesses could not attend the hearing on this matter scheduled for November 19, 1980, to be held in Washington, D. C., for the reason that they could not afford the time and expense involved, and upon consideration of the oppositions to said motion filed by Atwood's Transport Lines, Inc., Executive Limousine Service, Inc., and Airport Limo, Inc., protestants;

IT IS ORDERED that the above-described motion is hereby denied for the reason that applicant has failed to show good cause for the granting thereof as required by Rule 19-01 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.
